NHL Recap

Yesterday wasn't a very exciting day in the NHL for our model, but there were still a few good things that happened.

Money line predictions went 7-3 on the day, with the largest payout being the Maple Leafs ML at +130. That was a prediction that we wrote about in the newsletter and said that we would be taking despite it not being a 3-star play.

Yesterday's 3-star play, Kraken -1.5, ended up being a winner as well. The odds for that were +105, giving us two plus-money winners on the day.

Yesterday's chart is attached below.
