NBA Recap

Yesterday wasn't a very good day for the NBA model, ending the night 4-6 overall.

We had several bad beats in the mix last night. The worst was probably over 221.5 in the Timberwolves/Nuggets game, a matchup that saw 221 points. Denver came out the gates slow which tanked any chances the over had.

The other was the Celtics money line. Boston was up big in the fourth quarter, but Trae Young and crew turned on the jets late and won the game to extend the series. That resulted in the only money line loss of the night, but it helped us out a ton because Hawks +13.5 was yesterday's 3-star play.

Money Line Prediction	Over/Under Prediction	Spread Prediction
Celtics ML (-900)	UNDER 229.5 (-110)	Hawks +13.5 (-110)
Nuggets ML (-450)	OVER 221.5 (-110)	Nuggets -9.5 (-110)
Suns ML (-800)	UNDER 224 (-110)	Clippers +12.5 (-110)

NHL Recap

The NHL model also had a poor day, going 4-4-1 overall. None of yesterday's predictions was given 3-stars though.

Yesterday's chart is attached below.

Money Line Prediction	Over/Under Prediction	Spread Prediction
Hurricanes ML (-150)	OVER 5 (-140)	Islanders +1.5 (-200)
Stars ML (-145)	OVER 5.5 (+105)	Wild +1.5 (-215)
Oilers ML (-230)	OVER 6.5 (-120)	Kings +1.5 (-130)

MLB Recap

As you might have been able to guess, the MLB model also posted a bad day yesterday.

For the second day in a row the model started off strong, going 10-8 across the first 18 predictions it made, including getting every over/under prediction correct.

However, for the second day in a row the final three games of the slate tanked the record as the model went 1-8 on those predictions. The Diamondbacks were the main culprit for the second day in a row, coming up short once again against a very bad Royals team.

To make matters worse, yesterday's 3-star play, Pirates ML, was a loss. Pittsburgh was up 7-2 in the fifth inning but would go on to lose 8-7.

Money Line Prediction	Over/Under Prediction	Spread Prediction
